District Attorney Opens at Trial of Mrs. Sampson.

RAPID PROGRESS IS MADE

Story of Family Quarrel, Which Led to the Alleged Killing, Told by the Prosecuting Lawyer-Letter Received by Wife Is Held to Have Angered the Husband,

Lyons, N. Y., April 6.-The trial of Mrs. Allyn Sampson upon the charge of nurder in the first degree in shooting to death her husband, Harry Sampson, at Macedon, on November 1, progressed to such a stage to-day that the outlines of both prosecution and defense are clearly District Attorney Gilbert opened for the prosecution this morning, occupying an nour in outlining a circumstantial case against the prisoner, based upon the fact that the husband had become angered over the alleged indiscretions of his wife. He said the dead man's feelings were aggravated by opening and reading a leter intended for his wife, inviting her to bring a woman friend and meet the writer for an outing at Buffalo and Niagara Falls, Sampson showed the letter to his father-in-law and mother-in-law, they declaring that the letter was highly improper for a married woman to receive, said the attorney.
